

Commercial Litigation

The Jackson Kelly Commercial Litigation practice group has decades of business and commercial litigation experience. Our litigators represent clients in numerous federal courts, including the United States Courts of Appeal for the Fourth, Sixth and Seventh Circuits, District Courts throughout the United States, as well as many trial and appellate courts at the state level. Many of our attorneys are repeatedly recognized in The Best Lawyers in America® and are frequent speakers on a wide variety of topics relevant to commercial litigation.

Our attorneys routinely handle commercial disputes on matters such as antitrust litigation, intellectual property, coal, oil and gas, real estate, lending disputes, corporate (fiduciary duties), construction defects, defamation, software implementation, and RICO. Our work in this area encompasses both plaintiff and defense representation. Our attorneys also represent clients in a wide range of contract disputes in both state and federal court.
